New Business:

- Open Board positions for May Elections were discussed.
- JES Bike to School Day will be held May 20 with a rain date of May 27. JES Administration has requested PTO's help in pulling this off. Regan Yakubian and Nicole Dunn have offered to help organize on behalf of the PTO.
- JES Arts Night will be held May 25, the PTO Ice Cream Social will return for this event. More information to come as the date gets closer. Possible volunteer opportunities to scoop ice cream or hang artwork.
- Discussed having another Parents Night Out possibly in the fall after the start of school.
- Discussed a Summer/Early fall fundraiser or event. Earlier in the year it was discussed to make the Color Run a Bi-annual event. If the color run comes back, it will need a new chairperson and will have to work with the HS Athletic Director to schedule a weekend that High School kids will not have sports. Another idea of having a Dodge Ball fundraiser was discussed.

Old Business

- Read-A-Thon is wrapping up, currently $17,000 has been raised and this number is rising. A complete update will be giving at the April meeting.
- JES Conference dinner will be held March 24th. Caryn O'Connor is organizing the volunteers. Currently Deborah Irby, Regan Yakubian, Brittnay Lemke and Joe Deitsch will be helping day of with set up and/or clean up. Brittnay & Joe will be doing the shopping and salad prep. Amy Hyde will order the Pizza/Calzone for the event.
- Scholarship application deadline is April 15.
- JES Garden update: the 4th grade will be planting peas on March 30th with the help of Jon Belber for Holly Hill Farm. The handmade signs for each garden bed by JES parent Jackie Kilroe have been stored for the winter and will be returning soon. Volunteers are always needed and do not need garden experience.
